U.S. DISTRICT COURT
SAN JUAN, P.R.

INDICTMENT

U.S. v. Juan Carlos Marciales Cubillos, et al

persons both known and unknown to the Grand Jury to commit offenses against the United States in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956, to wit: to knowingly conduct and attempt to conduct financial transactions affecting interstate commerce, which transactions involved the proceeds of specified unlawful activity, that is, the felonious manufacture, importation, receiving, concealment, buying, selling, and otherwise dealing in controlled substances (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act), set forth in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961, punishable under any law of the United States including Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 846, knowing that the transactions were designed in whole and in part to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, and control of the proceeds of specified unlawful activity, and that while conducting and attempting to conduct such financial transactions, they knew that the property involved in the financial transactions represented the proceeds of some form of unlawful activity, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(h) & (a)(1)(B)(i).

OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The objects of the conspiracy were, among others, the following:

1. To generate money for its members and associates through the illegal sale and distribution of narcotics, such as cocaine.
2. To launder the proceeds of the illegal sale and distribution of narcotics through a series of financial transactions designed to avoid detection from authorities.

MANNER AND MEANS USE IN FURTHERANCE OF THE CONSPIRACY

The manner and means used to accomplish the objects of the conspiracy included, among others, the following:

INDICTMENT

U.S. v. Juan Carlos Marciales Cubillos, et al

1. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would represent various Colombian based owners of United States currency collected from the sale of narcotics.

2. It was further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would coordinate and deliver large sums of United States currency, which constituted proceeds from the illegal sale of narcotics in Puerto Rico, so that they could be later wire transferred to the Colombian owners of the proceeds.

3. It was further part of the conspiracy the defendants and their co-conspirators would provide multiple bank accounts throughout the United States, Colombia, China, and Canada, with the corresponding instructions for the electronic transfer of the narcotics proceeds.

OVERT ACTS IN FURTHERANCE OF THE CONSPIRACY

In furtherance of this conspiracy and to effect and accomplish the objects of the same, one or more of the conspirators committed, among others, the following overt acts:

1. From in or about July of 2004, until in or about November of 2005, defendant [1] JUAN CARLOS MARCIALES CUBILLOS, aka “Camilo”, “Cepillo”, coordinated the delivery of narcotics proceeds in Puerto Rico in the form of U.S. currency with persons known to the Grand Jury.

2. On or about July 20, 2004, in San Juan, Puerto Rico, Ivan Ortega Garcia (not indicted herein), delivered narcotics proceeds in the amount of ninety-nine thousand, five-hundred and eighty-one ($99,581.00) in U.S. currency to a person known to the Grand Jury for its later payment to the Colombian narcotics owner.

INDICTMENT
U.S. v. Juan Carlos Marciales Cubillos, et al

3. On or about August 25, 2004, in San Juan, Puerto Rico, an unindicted co-conspirator delivered narcotics proceeds in the amount of two-hundred and ninety-nine thousand, three-hundred and fourteen dollars ($299,314.00) in U.S. currency to a person known to the Grand Jury for its later payment to the Colombian narcotics owner.

4. On or about September 1, 2004, in Guaynabo, Puerto Rico, co-defendants [2] LUIS R. ELLIS BAEZ, aka "Siwin" and [3] JUAN DE JESUS GARCIA URENA, aka "El Doctor", delivered narcotics proceeds in the amount of eighty-nine thousand, nine-hundred and seventy-six dollars ($89,976.00) in U.S. currency to a person known to the Grand Jury for its later payment to the Colombian narcotics owner.

5. On or about November 17, 2004, in San Juan, Puerto Rico, co-defendants [4] MAXIMO A. FLORES and [5] DOMINGO UBIERA PEREZ, delivered narcotics proceeds in the amount of one-hundred and twenty-three thousand, nine-hundred and ninety-five dollars ($123,995.00) in U.S. currency to a person known to the Grand Jury for its later payment to the Colombian narcotics owner.

6. On or about November 23, 2004, in San Juan, Puerto Rico, co-defendants [4] MAXIMO A. FLORES and [5] DOMINGO UBIERA PEREZ, delivered narcotics proceeds in the amount of two-hundred thousand, one-hundred and fifty dollars ($200,150.00) in U.S. currency to a person known to the Grand Jury for its later payment to the Colombian narcotics owner.

7. At divers times during the span of the conspiracy, the defendants, co-conspirators, and others to the Grand Jury known and unknown, aiding and abetting each other, made themselves and their services available and participated in selected money laundering ventures on an “as needed” basis.

The Grand Jury hereby incorporates by reference Counts Two through Six of this Indictment and designates them as a further overt acts of this conspiracy.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1956(h) & (a)(1)(B)(i).
